

The Austin Convocation of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas welcomes YOU! We are doing great things in diverse worshipping communities, and they are waiting to worship with you on Sunday, July 8, 2018. Below you will find offerings in all shapes, sizes, locations, and rites. Each church has prepared a description of itself in its own words, and we invite you find one that speaks to you. Please don't be dismayed at the distances — some of our newest church plants are a little further out but have much to offer and share. We've got hidden gems all over the city. Think about carpooling or using RideAustin or another ride share to keep costs down and fellowship up. We can't wait to see you!

Episcopal Church of the Resurrection

The Episcopal Church of the Resurrection is a family-sized mission located in the heart of the cozy Crestview neighborhood at 2200 Justin Ln., Austin, TX 78757. We offer two Sunday services at 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM. The 8:30 service is a small Rite I service with no music in our chapel, while the 10:30 service is Rite II, takes place in the Nave, and includes a full choir. Fr. James Derkits (Trinity Episcopal Church, Port Aransas) will preach both services: all money from the offertory will go to rebuilding efforts in Port Aransas in the wake of Hurricane Harvey.

St. James' Episcopal Church

"Wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome at this table." St. James' Episcopal Church is an inclusive multicultural parish located in East Austin at 1941 Webberville Road, 78721, less than 6 miles from downtown Austin. Come experience radical hospitality at:

- 8 am: Rite I service in a spirit of contemplation.
- 10:15 am: Rite II service, a celebration of God's love and the Spirit's work in the world, with joyous music and fellowship.
- 1:00 pm: Proyecto Santiago Missional Community Spanish-language service with guitars and voices.
- 5:30 pm: A creative, contemporary service, based on the New Zealand Prayer Book.
