Acknowledgements

After the truncated 80th General Convention, it was a joy for us all to gather in Louisville. Although our meeting was still shorter than most previous conventions, we did have more opportunity to connect in ways that were impossible during the pandemic. I wish to express gratitude:

To the members of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, who deliberated under time constraints, and yet rose to the occasion with grace, good humor, and patience;

To the officers and members of our legislative committees, whose hours of service long before we assembled in Louisville ensured that the work of convention could be completed; To our presiding officers, The Rt. Rev. Michael Bruce Curry and The Rev. Julia Ayala Harris, and to my counterpart in the House of Bishops, The Rt. Rev. Diane M. Jardine Bruce, whose leadership helped guide us through six long legislative days;

To the many volunteers, to our gracious hosts in the Diocese of Kentucky, and to the City of Louisville, whose warm welcome enlightened and greatly supported our time in convention;

And to the extraordinary and dedicated staff of the General Convention:

Ms. Betsey Bell, Executive Assistant to the Executive Officer

The Rev. Carrie Combs, Legislative Data Specialist

Ms. Iris DiLeonardo, Data Specialist and Meetings Assistant

Mr. Patrick Haizel, Deputy for Administration and Operations

The Rev. Molly F. James, Ph.D., Deputy Executive Officer of General Convention

Ms. Brittney Laws, Meeting Coordinator

Ms. Jennifer Mendez, Administrative and Language Specialist

Mr. Brian Murray, Governance Technology Specialist

Ms. Fiona Nieman, Deputy for Convention and Meeting Planning

Ms. Twila Rios, Manager of Digital Information Systems

The staff of the Archives worked remotely to support the General Convention, its officers and its many activities, and with characteristic professionalism. I thank them for their excellent research, seen and unseen, that provided strong support.

Acknowledgements

Lastly, I would like to acknowledge and convey appreciation to some of the most dedicated and hardworking people serving the General Convention – the Secretariat volunteers.
