

JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

Short Response Questions for Potential Nominees for Election by the 82nd General Convention

If you are applying for multiple positions and wish to submit different written responses for each position, please email additional written responses to JSCN@episcopalchurch.org.

Public Statements for Potential Nominees

Please use first person language. These responses will be published in the Blue Book to provide to Convention should you be nominated. Each statement is limited to 350 words / 2200 characters.

- What practices form the foundation of your relationship with God, both as an individual and in community?
- Please share your competencies and skills that are relevant to serving in this position and indicate how you hope to use these gifts if elected to this body.
  - if applying for multiple bodies, and you desire to answer this question differently based upon the position, you can send your each answer to this question to JSCN@episcopalchurch.org – please use the subject line format: “[SURNAME, FIRSTNAME] – Gifts Statement – [Position Name],” for example, “SMITH, JANE – Gifts Statement – Executive Council”

Private Questions for Committee

Please use first person language. The following questions are for the discernment of the Joint Standing Committee on Nominations and are not for publication.

- How would you describe the role you most often take in collaborative leadership settings — such as boards, committees, or ministry teams? Please share one or two examples that illustrate how you tend to contribute to a group’s work.
- Describe your recent involvement in your congregation, diocese, and/or the wider church. (Please use first person, narrative language).
- As you reflect on your life, tell us how your experience shapes your readiness and sense of call to this position (whether personal, professional, or ministry-related). How has this shaped your sense of responsibility to the work of the wider Church?

Resume or Free-Response Submission for Committee

Please upload/attach up to 2 pages to communicate anything else you would like to share with the committee. While this may take the form of a resume, you are not necessarily restricted to that format.
